Treva Reid

Board Member | East Bay Government Relations Representative, Pacific Gas and Electric

Treva Reid joined the East Bay Government Relations Team at PG&E in 2015, taking the lead in 18 cities throughout Alameda and Contra Costa Counties. Prior, she was a Senior Field Representative for former California State Assemblymember Nancy Skinner heading up the district efforts in Alameda County, with a focus on Oakland, Emeryville, and Piedmont. Before joining Assemblymember Skinner's staff in 2012, she worked as the Public Affairs Manager for California Waste Solutions. Treva serves on the BWOPA Oakland/Berkeley Chapter Executive Board, The College Preparatory High School Trustee Board, and previously was a member of the Alameda County Recycling Board. She participates in several business associations and volunteers with Bay Area non-profit organizations. In all of these capacities, Treva partners with elected officials and community leaders to pursue her passion for advocacy and serving the needs of others. She holds a B.S. in Marketing from Hampton University and a Master of Theology and Historical Studies, with an emphasis on leadership, from Shiloh Bible College.
