- Federal regulations require that management recertify each household's income and assets annually. Management must also regularly inspect apartments to ensure that they are suitable for occupancy.

All applicants are subject to the following Resident Selection Criteria:

Background Checks

Management will review eviction and unlawful detainer records, landlord references, criminal history, and sex offender registration requirements to determine applicant suitability. No screening fees will be charged to the applicant. If an applicant is denied due to any of the following criteria, the applicant will receive written notification and instructions on the appeal process.

Evictions and Unlawful Detainers

Applicants with an eviction or unlawful detainer judgment date within the last five (5) years will be denied. Stipulations, dismissals, and cases without a final disposition are not a reason for denial.

Landlord Reference Checks

Management will verify residency with current and prior landlords for the past two (2) years. Management is specifically looking at payment history, incidents of damage and/or housekeeping issues, lease violations and eviction proceedings. If a negative landlord reference is received, the application will be denied. Lack of residential history does not necessarily disqualify you.

Criminal & Sex Offender Screening

Except for properties in Oakland and Berkeley, applicants with a felony conviction date within the last five (5) years will be denied. Convictions that are screened include categories of crimes that could be a threat to the property, residents, or staff, such as violent crimes, property crimes, sex crimes, and drug crimes related to manufacturing, selling, or distribution. Criminal records resulting in a misdemeanor are not a reason for denial.

Applicant Conduct

If, during the course of processing an application, it becomes evident that an applicant has falsified or otherwise misrepresented any facts about his/her current situation, history, or behavior in a manner that would affect eligibility, applicant selection criteria qualification, allowances, household composition, or rent, the application will be denied.

If an applicant or guest of an applicant exhibits blatant disrespect, or disruptive behavior towards management, the property, or other residents any time prior to move-in, the application will be denied.

Management will deny a household if there is reasonable cause to believe that a member's behavior from 1) abuse or a pattern of abuse of alcohol and/or 2) illegal use or pattern of illegal use of drugs may interfere with the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents.
