The waiting list will open starting June 10, 2016 to only accept applications from homeless households for 1-bedroom Project Based Voucher (PBV) units.

The waiting list will accept only 30 qualified applicants.

The waiting list will close once 30 applications are received.

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in becoming a resident of Satellite Affordable Housing Associates. Below is some important information you should know about the process before applying.

- Applications must be submitted in person or by mail to 609 Oak Street, Attn: Manager's Office, Oakland, CA 94607.
- Only complete and original applications will be accepted. Please print in ink, and please do not use white-out on the application. Instead, cross out and initial mistakes. Write "N/A" in sections that are not applicable.
- We will evaluate the individual circumstances of each application, will consider additional information submitted by the applicant, and will provide reasonable accommodations when requested, verified, and necessary. Persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply.
- If your household is over-income, or otherwise unqualified, your application will be denied. You will receive written notification and instructions on the appeal process. Persons with disabilities have the right to request reasonable accommodations to participate in the appeal process. In addition, we will consider extenuating circumstances and may make exceptions to policy as a reasonable accommodation to afford persons with disabilities equal access to our housing.
- It is your responsibility to notify management of address or telephone number changes. If we are unable to contact you, your name will be removed from the waiting list.
- It is our policy to update the waiting list annually by sending all applicants a Waiting List Update Letter and removing the names of those who are no longer interested in or no longer qualify for housing.
- If you turn down two opportunities for housing, your application will be removed from the waiting list. You may reapply for housing when the waiting list is open.
- Federal regulations require that management recertify each household's income and assets annually. Management must also regularly inspect apartments to ensure that they are suitable for occupancy.

All applicants are subject to the following Resident Selection Criteria:

Background Checks

Management will review landlord references, eviction records, unlawful detainer records, and criminal history to determine applicant suitability. No screening fees will be charged to the applicant.

Evictions and Unlawful Detainers

Applicants with an eviction or unlawful detainer judgment within the last five (5) years from the judgment date will be denied. Stipulations, dismissals, and cases without a final disposition will be excluded.

Landlord Reference Checks

Management will verify residency with current and prior landlords for the past two (2) years. We are specifically looking at payment history, incidents of damage and/or housekeeping issues, lease violations and eviction proceedings. If a negative landlord reference is received, the application will be denied. Lack of residential history does not necessarily disqualify you.

Criminal & Sex Offender Screening

Applicants with a felony conviction within five (5) years from the end of the sentence will be denied. Criminal records resulting in a misdemeanor will be excluded.

An applicant who is subject to lifetime registration requirement under a state sex offender program will be denied.

Management will deny a household if there is reasonable cause to believe that a member's behavior from abuse or pattern of abuse of alcohol and/or illegal use or pattern of illegal use of drugs may interfere with the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents. Management will deny a household containing a member who was evicted from federally assisted housing for drug-related criminal activity.

Applicant Conduct

If, during the course of processing an application, it becomes evident that an applicant has falsified or otherwise misrepresented any facts about his/her current situation, history, or behavior in a manner that would affect eligibility, applicant selection criteria qualification, allowances, household composition, or rent, the application will be denied.

If an applicant or guest of an applicant exhibits blatant disrespect, or disruptive behavior towards management, the property, or other residents any time prior to move-in, the application will be denied.
